KENNETH WEATHERS, COUNTY CLERK

Gentlemen:

As you are aware a Grant has been applied for from the State of Tennessee for the purpose of construction of a Multi Purpose Park. At this time it's uncertain as to the awarding of this grant. The grant is not completely without possibility. However, the need is still with us to provide the community with such a park. Last year a resolution was passed promising to help fund such a park by the Lawrence County Board of Commissioners. The Lawrenceburg Commissioners still committs themselves to this funding. Hopefully the Board of Commission of Lawrence County also feels this is still a worthy project.

Gentlemen:the funding of this facility can be obtained from the recently imposed Hotel/Motel tax passed by this body. Upon completion of this facility weekend tournament will be scheduled that will generate revenue for Lawrence County. This gives the Hotel/Motel owners something back for their tax.

The Multi-Purpose Board has discussed the daily and yearly budget of the project. The concessions from this park will go a long way toward making the park self supporting but their will be some yearly budgets to be addressed.

Gentleman: a ride around any ball field in Lawrence County in the early spring is evidence to support the need of such a park. This money spent will reap reward for many years to come. It can be another point of light for industrial recruitment. It will be a way of providing quality recreation for boys, girls, men,women, industrial leagues, church ministry, handicapped, older citizens and all Lawrence Countians.
